1. The state of readiness of the exhibit is to a considerable extent dependent upon the availability of manpower in [] shop. He has completed two of the three large maps requested, and has started on the third, plus the graphic illustrations of statements by Communist leaders. [] has been most cooperative, but has had other assignments with higher priorities.

2. As far as General Cabell's request for hardware is concerned this material is now beginning to come in. We have on hand a collection of guerrilla knives from the Greek civil war, and expect to receive shortly Soviet rifles taken from Communist insurgents in Spain, Vietnam, Korea, and Greece. Several weapons locally manufactured by CP technicians in SE Asia, their equivalents of a Tommy-gun and a BAR, have been promised. In addition, we have

3. IO has indicated that it will provide us with any of the pictures used in the [] exhibit, but that it prefers to withhold the posters. The ACEN plans a series of overseas showings and IO fears a possible identification of the posters and a consequent revelation [] We have not yet received from [] prints of the pictures which [] and have not, therefore, levied any specific requirements upon IO. In any event we have sufficient pictures on hand already of Communist terrorism within the Bloc. The [] prints will simply fill out our present collection which is also being mounted by [] shop.

4. We plan to put more emphasis upon illustrating Communist attempts to stir up antagonisms within a single nationality group (Greek vs Greek, []) and to use minority groups against a dominant nationality (Chinese vs Malayan) in violent activities. The weapons, the Spanish pictures which [] will
